2. As ordered by the Commission, 294 Designated Photography Locations were established earlier and now they have been expended to the Tahsil Level with a total number of DPL Centers from 294 to 1200 which requires monitoring by these project managers regularly. The Election Commission of India has also decided that a full fledged GIS system with State Level Data and maps be set up in every C.E.Os. Office. The Commission wants that GIS maps to provide policy input on the following issues:

- I. Vulnerability assessment of Polling Stations with respect to Geographical and other socio economic parameters.
- II. Analysis of prior election related incidents and results with respect to geographical parameters.
- III. Location of Polling stations hamlets with respect to all weather roads and optimal location of Polling Stations for providing convenience to Voters.
- IV. Re-organisation of Polling Stations with reduced voters strength wherever geographical impediments are faced.
- V. Preparation of digital maps for all the Polling Stations in the State for attachment with the electoral roll.

3. Apart from the above work to be taken up and completed, the Election Commission of India has now announced Summary Revision 2012 with 01.01.2012 as a qualifying date with instructions to complete as per the schedule.
